

#STUCELGETAWAY: YOGYAKARTA EDITION

Posted on October 28, 2019 by Felix Widjaja

Category: Office Life

Yogya!

What was the first thing on your mind when you read that? Culture? Temple? Relaxing vibe? Angkringan? Those were also on our minds when we decided to take a short escape to Yogyakarta in the middle of our hectic October. Time to take a deep breath and chill. Woohoo!

Beside being known as the City of Culture, Yogyakarta also offer various of culinary destination. So it became our first destination after our stomach growling during the flight. Our choice came to the legendary Gudeg Bu Djum.

And next, time to have some fun! What else if it isn't beach party? Yes, Parangtritis Beach! While enjoying the sunset, we had really a good time with team building games.

Enjoying Sunset at Parangtritis Beach

It's Day 2!

It would never be completed to visit Yogyakarta without learning the culture: batik! A new experience that we really enjoyed. Learning batik really challenges ourselves to be more creative, thank you Museum Batik Yogyakarta!

Challenge Accepted at Museum Batik Yogyakarta

Do not forget to enjoy the beautiful Prambanan Temple when in Yogyakarta. Oh, also take some photos in the middle of golden hour is a must!

Golden Hour featured Prambanan Temple

Dinner time! Our dinner at Bukit Bintang was accompanied by stars and the city lights. Surely it was a night to remember.

A Night to Remember at The Manglung, Bukit Bintang

Our last lunch at House of Raminten to close our last day in Yogyakarta. After that, it's time to return home with lot of sweet memories. See you in another time!

It Was A Wrap, We Left our Hearts at Yogyakarta